

There is a... lot of lot lying going on alright,
Bruising trust in the "Remain" fight,
Just lost all our steelworks, closed OUR factory doors,
Those GREEDY boys will have us on all fours!.
The Brexit EU city beat has already started
The voice of the British voters sprang into action
And lying Cameron watched it all under the yellow street light
And said "this night (June 23rd) of all nights, we're gonna lose the fight"

The Brits dont like living here, we're pushed UNDERGROUND!
We say.. the traps have been sprung long before we TURNED ROUND!
We say "hope bites the dust behind EU closed doors"
And we WON'T be brought down crawling on our all fours!.
There's screaming and crying in the NHS
It's a rat trap Britain but we're already caught!
But you can make it if you want to or you need it bad enough
We're young and good looking and Thrive when things are tough!
Anyway when we leave the EU you'll see what's going down.
Put on the bright suit Britain, head for the OUT road of town!
It's only 2016 but you're already bored
You don't know what it is but there's got to be more..
You'd better find a way out, hey kick down that door
It's a rat trap and we've been caught

In this EU Britain says "everybody tries to tell you what to do"
In this EU Britain says "everybody says you gotta follow rules."
You walk up to those traffic lights,
Switch from your left to right
You push in that button, and when that button comes alight
It tells you
"Walk don't walk
Talk don't talk"
Hey Britain take a walk...with me.

Get out of this misery!

Little Brits never knew "top of the pops"
Their mum and dad are fighting don't they ever stop,
They take down their coats and walks out on the street,
It's cold on that road, but it's got that DOWN beat,
Deep down in her pockets she finds 50p.,
Now is that any way for a young BRIT to be,
"I'm gonna get out of school and squat in that old factory, search all the hours God gave me get myself a little easy money"
Now, now, now na na.

Our mind's made up, We will walk down that road,
Control our own borders and not do as we are told!,
You wont find brits voting for an Italian Cafe!
We're British and We're proud, and we'll do it OUR WAY!
June 23rd Cameron will suddenly roar,
"It's a rat trap Osborne; and we've been caught...."
